Policy for Storm-Damaged Trees

The Conservation Commission has discussed and agreed on a general policy regarding the cutting and removal of storm-damaged trees as follows:

The cutting and removal of storm-damaged trees in wetland resource areas that present a direct threat to life, safety or property shall be considered a maintenance activity that is exempt from filing requirements.

The exempt tree-cutting and/or removal activity shall not include stump removal, excavation, fill or any other alteration in the resource area.

The cutting and/or removal of trees in resource areas for any other reason, is not exempt and shall require an RDA or NOI filing.
