

Boxborough Conservation Commission
Meeting Minutes
Wednesday
February 5, 2014 Town Hall

Members present: David Follett, Charlene Golden, Norm Hanover, Dennis Reip (Chair), and Hoff Stuart. Member absent: David Koonce

Dennis called the meeting to order at 7:35 pm.

Motion was made by David, seconded by Hoff, and unanimously voted to approve the minutes of January 15, 2014.

In response to a phone call from Charlene Golden, the Building Inspector made a site visit to the property at the corner of Stow Road and Rt. 111 to investigate tree cutting. On Friday, January 17th he found twelve (12) recently cut stumps. Ten of them were located between the building to the rear of the parking lot and the pond. Dennis will write a letter to the property owners.

Motion was made by Dennis, seconded by David, and unanimously voted to approve the Certificate of Compliance 113-360 for the well at the Blanchard School.

Motion was made by Dennis, seconded by Norm, and unanimously voted to approve the Certificate of Compliance 113-370WB for the beaver deceiver at the Blanchard School.

Motion was made by Dennis, seconded by David, and unanimously voted to approve the Certificate of Compliance 113-370 for the septic at the Blanchard School.

Motion was made by Dennis, seconded by Hoff, and unanimously voted to approve the payment of $392.50 to Places Associates, Inc. consultants to the Commission on the Flagg Hill Road LLC filing.

Dennis will send an email to the BoS expressing the Commission's support of the CPA concept.

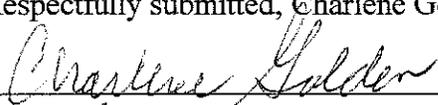

Charlene will discuss CoC fees with Mary and report at the next meeting.

Regarding 113-515 Flagg Hill Road LLC. the DEP issued a Superceding Order affirming the Commission's Order. The Commission then received a copy of a Notice of Claim for Adjudicatory Appeal of that Superceding Order.

Dennis will reply to the SVT's inquiries about deer hunting in Boxborough and Mary will reply to the inquiry about solar panels in the buffer zone.

Motion was made by David, seconded by Norm, and unanimously voted to adjourn at 9:15 pm.

Respectfully submitted, Charlene Golden.
