OLD BUSINESS:

1. There was a discussion of the presentation to the Board of Selectmen regarding approval of a Warrant Article for the town Social Services Coordinator.
  - a. Data needed and data available and its accuracy,
  - b. It was pointed out that a clear understanding of the data was needed,
    - i. How does this translate into the need for a social services coordinator?
    - ii. Various points related to the above were introduced and discussed
    - iii. It was decided that the committee needed to demonstrate that Boxborough has some poverty related mental health issues, which a community services coordinator would help to manage by referral, etc.
    - iv. It was agreed that the position would have a social services connection not a medical connection.
  - c. Liz Markiewicz volunteered to do more work on the data,
2. A discussion of the Annual Town Meeting presentation format and content ensued.
  - a. Channing Wagg offered to provide a history for the use of the person who would present the article on behalf of the Well-Being Committee.
  - b. Further discussion ensued.

The meeting adjourned at 10:05 a. m.

Respectfully submitted,
Channing Wagg
